PRESIDENT'S SECRETARIAT

New Delhi, the 21st February 1961

No. 14-Pres./61.—The President is pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Uttar Pradesh Police:—

Name of the Officer and rank.

Shri Santosh Kumar Chatterji, Deputy Superintendent of Police (City), Allahabad, Uttar Pradesh.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.

On the afternoon of the 28th August, 1959 Shri Santosh Kumar Chatterji, Deputy Superintendent of Police (City), Allahabad received information at P. S. Dhumangani that a large crowd of students had gone in procession to the bungalow of the District Magistrate. On arriving there he found that they had made for the Mansarovar Cinema to avenge an offence they believed the Cinema management had given them. Shri Chatterji promptly requisitioned a force from the Police Lines Fire Brigade and other Units and himself hurried to the Mansarovar Cinema along with the City Magistrate. A violent crowd had collected at the three cross roads near the cinema and its numbers were increasing every minute. This crowd pelted brickbats and other missiles at the police. Ten members of the mounted police and about 30 to 40 foot constables were driven back by the rioters who grew more and more turbulent at each succeeding effort for their peaceful dispersal. Some of the rioters advanced to the entrance of the cinema broke bulbs, damaged other electrical fittings and started a fire near the screen. They also broke open the western doors of the cinema and attacked and injured with brickbats members of the Fire Fighting Units inside the cinema. They then set fire to the godown in the eastern verandah of the cinema, and in the hand-to-hand struggle that ensued between them and the police, some members of the police received injuries.

Panic prevailed in the locality and when it became manifest that there was considerable danger to the lives of many of the spectators in the cinema amongst whom were several women and children, and that there was a likelihood of the cinema being destroyed, the City Magistrate declared the assembly unlawful and ordered the rioters to disperse warning them that if they failed to do so force would be resorted to. When this order proved ineffective, the police used tear gas to disperse the crowd but, after retreating a short distance, the crowd again surged forward and with greater violence attacked the police injuring several badly. The City Magistrate then ordered a lathi-charge and the crowds were driven back.

At this stage the District Magistrate and the Additional Superintendent of Police arrived on the scene. The District Magistrate ordered the crowd to disperse, and when they refused to do so, ordered the use of tear gas. The rioters however took cover in nearby lanes from where they continued to throw brickbats at the police. The District Magistrate ordered another lathi-charge but the crowds became still more violent causing severe injuries to several officers and policemen. The rioters cut off and surrounded two police constables who were thus in imminent danger of losing their lives. Shri S. K. Chatterji, seeing their predicament, and regardless of the grave risk, plunged into the thick of the crowd to rescue the two men and by his gallant intervention prevented them from being done to death. Shri Chatterji did not, however, escape the wrath of the rioters and was seriously injured in the abdomen by one of them and fell down unconscious. He was removed to the Moti Lal Nehru Hospital in a precarious condition and revived after several hours. The disturbance was quelled and the situation brought under control only after firing was resorted to by the police under the orders of the District Magistrate and curfew imposed.

In this incident Shri Santosh Kumar Chatterji, displayed qualities of leadership, gallantry and single-minded devotion to duty of a high order. He jeopardized his own life in saving the lives of two policemen and by his example maintained the morale of the police force under the most trying circumstances.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the Police Medal.

No. 15-Pres./61.—The President is pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Andhra Pradesh Police:—

Name of the officer and rank

Shri Pallapu Venkateswarlu, Police Constable No. 1771, Inavole Police Station, Vinukonda Circle, Guntur District, Andhra Pradesh.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.

Feelings were strained between the Yadavas and Kammas of the village of Pamidipadu within the jurisdiction of the Inavole Police Station of the Guntur district consequent on elections to the Panchayat Board that took place in the village on the 12th October 1959. The Yadavas started setting fire to the hay-ricks, houses, granaries, etc. of the Kammas. Police Constable Pallapu Venkateswarlu and two other constables of the Inavole Police Station were posted in the village to watch developments. The three constables patrolled the village day and night by turns, warning both communities against acts involving the breach of the peace.

At about 3.00 p.m. on the 25th March 1960, while the constables were patrolling the village, the house of one Medarametala Peda Subbaiah situated on the northern outskirts of the village was set fire to. He and his two young children aged 7 and 5 years were asleep in the house. On hearing the alarm, Police Constable Venkateswarlu rushed to the burning house only to find it bolted from inside. He heard the cries of the owner and his two children coming from inside the house and managed to climb over the wall and open the door from inside. By this time the whole roof of the house was ablaze, but Constable Venkateswarlu boldly carried the old man out on his shoulders through the flames. Risking his life he again entered the room, untied the calves tethered there and drove them safely out. In the meantime, the front portion of the roof of the house had completely burnt and collapsed encircling Constable Venkateswarlu in flames. Disregarding the danger to himself, Constable Venkateswarlu then carried the two children out in his arms and in the process of doing so his shirt caught fire and he received severe burns on his back.

In this incident Police Constable Pallapu Venkateswarlu risked his own life to save three persons and two animals from a fire which could quite easily have engulfed him. He displayed exemplary courage and devotion to duty.

2 This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the Rules governing the award of the Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in Rule 5.
